

THE MAN OF SIN – Evidence That Demands a Verdict

A harbinger of sorts was evidenced on September 11, 2011 which went largely un-noticed. To get the full impact of what is presented herein, one must read AND view all the material and video clips linked, and make your own decision as to the findings presented. Many of the excerpts below were originally part of blogging comments I made on certain end-time events websites, thus the postings herein and comments are not in any particular order. ~A Watchman

On September 11, 2011 President Barack Obama read from Psalm 46 as part of the ceremony at the World Trade Center site to mark the 10th anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks.

A must watch & listen: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VxFj4mv0rRQ>

Reading Psalm 46 just does not foot with everything else he has done, is doing, and who he really is (which we don't really know, since most of his past seems to be blocked) - he is such an extreme narcissist that I would dare say (to point out the obvious) he seemed to be talking about himself in many of the verses he read, these three stand out:

*Be still and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations.
I will be exalted in the Earth.*

Seemed like a narcissistic forth-telling, his own look into the future.

O has been sounding a lot like (or maybe a type of):
The Man of Lawlessness - 2 Thessalonians 2

- 1 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers and sisters,
- 2 not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by the teaching allegedly from us - whether by a prophecy or by word of mouth or by letter - asserting that the day of the Lord has already come.
- 3 Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction.
- 4 He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.
- 5 Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?
- 6 And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time.
- 7 For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way.

- 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendor of his coming.
- 9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie,
- 10 and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.
- 11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie
- 12 and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.

(What is to be our response) Stand Firm

- 13 But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you as first fruits to be saved through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth.
- 14 He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the teachings[c] we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.
- 16 May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope,
- 17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word.

I know anyone could miss a pronunciation, but O pronounced bow incorrectly as bough. O's mispronunciation of 'bow' as "bough" could be VERY significant per my research!

In looking into the word "bough" I found "The Golden Bough" A Study in Magic and Religion.

The Golden Bough attempts to define the shared elements of religious belief, ranging from ancient belief systems to relatively modern religions such as Christianity. Its thesis is that old religions were fertility cults that revolved around the worship of, and periodic sacrifice of, a sacred king. This king was the incarnation of a dying and reviving god, a solar deity who underwent a mystic marriage to a goddess of the earth, who died at the harvest, and was reincarnated in the spring. Frazer claims that this legend is central to almost all of the world's mythologies. The germ for Frazer's thesis was the pre-Roman priest-king at the fane of Nemi, who was ritually murdered by his successor:

~ Preface to Frazer's The Golden Bough

In this sacred grove there grew a certain tree round which at any time of the day, and probably far into the night, a grim figure might be seen to prowl. In his hand he carried a drawn sword, and he kept peering warily about him as if at every instant he expected to be set upon by an enemy.

He was a priest and a murderer; and the man for whom he looked was sooner or later to murder him and hold the priesthood in his stead.

Such was the rule of the sanctuary.

[One could look at this statement two ways, the AC is murdered 3.5 yrs into the Tribulation and Satan takes his place, appearing to raise him from the dead and with the antichrist continues their counterfeit priesthood, and, isn't this exactly what is going to happen when Christ finally settles the account with the antichrist and King Jesus the Messiah as "the priest forever in the order of Melchizedek" (Ps. 110:4), plays the role of High Priest once and for all.]

Also...a reference in <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cornerstone> is interesting pertaining to the Freemason Cornerstone:

Often, the ceremony involved the placing of offerings of grain, wine and oil on or under the stone. These were symbolic of the produce and the people of the land and the means of their subsistence. This in turn derived from the practice in still more ancient times of making an animal or human sacrifice that was laid in the foundations.

Frazer (2006: p. 106-107) in The Golden Bough charts the various proprietary sacrifices and effigy substitution such as the shadow, states that:

Nowhere, perhaps, does the equivalence of the shadow to the life or soul come out more clearly than in some customs practiced to this day in South-eastern Europe. In modern Greece, when the foundation of a new building is being laid, it is the custom to kill a cock, a ram, or a lamb, and to let its blood flow on the foundation-stone, under which the animal is afterwards buried. The object of the sacrifice is to give strength and stability to the building. But sometimes, instead of killing an animal, the builder entices a man to the foundation-stone, secretly measures his body, or a part of it, or his shadow, and buries the measure under the foundation-stone; or he lays the foundation-stone upon the man's shadow. It is believed that the man will die within the year. The Roumanians of Transylvania think that he whose shadow is thus immured will die within forty days; so persons passing by a building which is in course of erection may hear a warning cry, Beware lest they take thy shadow! Not long ago there were still shadow-traders whose business it was to provide architects with the shadows necessary for securing their walls. In these cases the measure of the shadow is looked on as equivalent to the shadow itself, and to bury it is to bury the life or soul of the man, who, deprived of it, must die. Thus the custom is a substitute for the old practice of immuring a living person in the walls, or crushing him under the foundation-stone of a new building, in order to give strength and durability to the structure, or more definitely in order that the angry ghost may haunt the place and guard it against the intrusion of enemies.

[not hard to see how this could all fit!]

So now back to O's parapraxis"

He breaks the bough and cuts the spear in two.
He burns the chariot in fire.
Be still and know that I am God.

See for yourself the actual transcript of O's reading of Psalm 46 still printed on the Whitehouse.gov website

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/blog/2011/09/11/president-obama-and-first-lady-join-services-commemorate-tenth-anniversary-911>

It has the same miss-spelling on the actual transcript...it says bough! This was not a mistake!

Note: Also note in the video how many times O repeats "I Am God" and the inflection of how its stated. How fitting he states that on 9/11 – September 11, the actual birth date of Jesus Christ (Google that and see the evidence) ...as if to try and usurp the position of God on the date of His birth!

"For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north" Isaiah 14:13

Golden Bough: Barack Obama has published two wellcrafted memoirs but will a victory spell a new era in American literature?

(very interesting use of words from the AP in 2008 - Obama Golden Bough)

July 14, 2008

In the patois of punditry, “charismatic” has come to mean little more than “like a rock star.” But the striking thing about the charismatic leader is the extent to which his followers regard him as a healer of wounds, an alleviator of pain. In this sense, surely, Senator Barack Obama is charismatic. The carefully knotted ties and the dark, conservatively tailored suits only accentuate the exoticness of his shamanism; he has entered the American psyche not as a hero but as a healer. [Hummm...sounds like Obama Golden Bough]

The country, or much of it, has longed for such a figure, a man from the once-oppressed race whose rise to power will atone for the sins of slavery and racial stigmatization. But Obama's rhetoric encompasses more than a promise of racial healing. He is not the first politician to argue that politics can redeem us, but in posing as the Adonis who will turn winter into spring, he revives one of the more pernicious political swindles: the belief that a charismatic leader can ordain a civic happy hour and give a people a sense of community that will make them feel less bad.

In his unfinished treatise Economy and Society, Max Weber defined charisma as “a certain quality in an individual personality by virtue of which he is set apart from ordinary men and treated as endowed with supernatural, superhuman, or at least specifically exceptional powers or qualities.” Weber was able to do little more, before he died in 1920, than give a pseudoscientific élan to an idea that had been kicking around for centuries. Most of what he said about charismatic authority was stated more cogently in Book III of Aristotle's Politics, which described the great-souled man who “may truly be deemed a God among men” and who, by virtue of his greatness, is exempt from ordinary laws. [WOW, who does this sound like!]

What both Aristotle and Weber made too little of is the mentality of the charismatic leader's followers, the disciples who discover in him, or delusively endow him with, superhuman qualities. “Charisma” was originally a religious term signifying a gift of God: it often denotes (according to the seventeenth-century scholar-physician John Bulwer) a “miraculous gift of healing.” James G. Frazer, in The Golden Bough, demonstrated that the connection between charismatic leadership and the melioration of suffering was historically a close one: many primitive peoples believed that the magical virtues of a priest-king could guarantee the soil's fertility and that such a leader could therefore alleviate one of the most elementary forms of suffering, hunger. The identification of leadership with the mitigation of pain persists in folklore and myth. In the Arthurian legends, Percival possesses an extraordinary magic that enables him to heal the fisher king and redeem the waste land; in England, the touch of the monarch's hand was believed to cure scrofula.

Obama Messianism

www.nationalreview.com/liberal-fascism/203769/obama-messianism

July 14, 2008

Basically the same article as above with a different title "Obama Messianism"

Ok...so it looks like the "Bough" vs bow is starting to fit as not just a mistaken mispronunciation - whether he meant to say it or not!

In my search for other sources where O has been compared to The Golden Bough, I also stumbled on this:

Liu Bolin, "Burning Man Obama", 2009, Bronze and pyrotechnics

Somehow seems to fit this post

"And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." Revelation 20:10

Who Are the people behind O?

Ah yes, that is a very good question "Who are these people".....

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MouUJNG8f2k&feature=player_embedded

Keep in mind when listening to this, it was recorded in the early part of November 2008 (pre-election)...on a look back, this guy appears to be spot on with almost all of what he says.

In thinking further about the sculpture by Chinese artist Liu Bolin titled "Burning Man Obama" I found it was tested at a workshop in Beijing November 11, 2009 (11/11/09). The sculpture is to "represent President Barack Obama's impact on the world."

Could this be a message in itself? (same as what I will point out below) 11/11/2009 or $11+11+2+9 = 33$ and likely some tie-in with 9/11 with the same numbers in reverse.

From my prior post, I realized July 14, 2008 was the first mention of the tie-in of O and (and being) The Golden Bough...it was actually in two articles that same day:

<http://archive.frontpagemag.com/readArticle.aspx?ARTID=31646>
and Obama Messianism <http://www.nationalreview.com/liberal-fascism/203769/obama-messianism>

If you start at July 14, 2008 to the election day of O on November 4, 2008, it is exactly 113-days or $11 \times 3 = 33$... In numerology the number 33 has the meaning of "The Master Healer" additionally, 11, 13 and 33 is the Illuminati / Freemason Signature www.theforbiddenknowledge.com/hardtruth/13_33_freemason_sig.htm

They have a long history of staging events to correspond to, or point at certain numbers as a signal to the enlightened.

Back to the 113-days, [11, 13 and 33 is the Illuminati / Freemason Signature] it has all three numbers represented 11 and 13 and $11 \times 3 = 33$

O is next mentioned again in the context of The Golden Bough on "All Saints Day" Oct 31st, 2008, 4 days prior to the election (undoubtedly as another Illuminati message)

In the Comments section someone wrote: Wow... my first thought was of Frazer's Golden Bough, where he compares the myths of the Corn King and the Messiah... the Obamessiah is clearly the culmination of all of that!

Source: <http://beingornothingness.blogs.com/living/2008/10/hosannah-obama.html>

And...

FEBRUARY 12, 2008 (now the earliest record I have found of the Golden Bough comparison (266 days prior to election) and the most eye opening....also, Feb 12, 2008 = 2/12/2008 or 2122008 $2+1+2+20+8 = 33$ (33 surfaces again!).

Read this slowly (printed below) and let it sink in:

Obama: The Sorcerer's Method Behind the Madness

http://americandigest.org/mt-archives/intellectually_insane/chapter_3_sympa.php

"Come on home, girl,"
He said with a smile
"You don't have to love me yet,
Let's get high awhile.
But try to understand,
Try to understand,
Try, try, try to understand
I'm a magic man." -- Heart

"In savage society there is commonly to be found in addition what we may call public magic, that is, sorcery practiced for the benefit of the whole community. Wherever ceremonies of this sort are observed for the common good, it is obvious that the magician ceases to be merely a private practitioner and becomes to some extent a public functionary.

"The development of such a class of functionaries is of great importance for the political as well as the religious evolution of society. For when the welfare of the tribe is supposed to depend on the performance of these magical rites, the magician rises into a position of much influence and repute, and may readily acquire the rank and authority of a chief or king.

"The profession accordingly draws into its ranks some of the ablest and most ambitious men of the tribe, because it holds out to them a prospect of honor, wealth, and power such as hardly any other career could offer. The acuter minds perceive how easy it is to dupe their weaker brother and to play on his superstition for their own advantage.

"Not that the sorcerer is always a knave and impostor; he is often sincerely convinced that he really possesses those wonderful powers which the credulity of his fellows ascribes to him. But the more sagacious he is, the more likely he is to see through the fallacies which impose on duller wits.

"Thus the ablest members of the profession must tend to be more or less conscious deceivers; and it is just these men who in virtue of their superior ability will generally come to the top and win for themselves positions of the highest dignity and the most commanding authority.

"The pitfalls which beset the path of the professional sorcerer are many, and as a rule only the man of coolest head and sharpest wit will be able to steer his way through them safely. For it must always be remembered that every single profession and claim put forward by the magician as such is false; not one of them can be maintained without deception, conscious or unconscious.

Accordingly the sorcerer who sincerely believes in his own extravagant pretensions is in far greater peril and is much more likely to be cut short in his career than the deliberate impostor.

"The honest wizard always expects that his charms and incantations will produce their supposed effect; and when they fail, not only really, as they always do, but conspicuously and disastrously, as they often do, he is taken aback: he is not, like his knavish colleague, ready with a plausible excuse to account for the failure, and before he can find one he may be knocked on the head by his disappointed and angry employers."

Call me crazy, but sure looks like O is the point person to strike a Peace Agreement (Isaiah 28:14,15) in the Mideast... "he shall confirm a covenant with many" Daniel 9:27

...let's rewind to the Nobel Peace Prize of 2009.

The Nobel Peace Prize 2009 was awarded to Barack H. Obama "for his extraordinary efforts to strengthen international diplomacy and cooperation between peoples".

Accepting Nobel, Obama vows to pursue Mideast peace

U.S. President Barack Obama reiterated on Friday his commitment to resolving the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, in a short speech he made during which he expressed surprise over winning the 2009 Nobel Peace Prize.

"We must all do our part to resolve those conflicts that have caused so much pain and hardship over so many years," Obama told reporters in the White House Rose Garden.

"And that effort must include an unwavering commitment that finally realizes that the rights of all Israelis and Palestinians to live in peace and security in nations of their own."

Bin Laden Killing Gives Obama Clout in Middle East Peace Deal

<http://www.usnews.com/opinion/blogs/stephen-glain/2011/05/06/bin-laden-killing-gives-obama-clout-in-middle-east-peace-deal>

With the deletion of the world's most wanted terrorist, the deleter in chief should invest his newfound diplomatic and political capital in the Levantine Middle East, where the whirlwind of political unrest is sowing opportunities for a peace deal.

This week, Palestinian factions Fatah and Hamas reconciled after four years of estrangement. As part of a unity government, Hamas will honor the Palestinian Authority's peace agreements with Israel and Fatah officials will lead the new government in negotiations with the Jewish state for an independent Palestine. This is a position Hamas would never have assumed two decades ago, when Yasser Arafat negotiated an historic peace deal with Israel, nor is it the first time it has made such a concession....

...President Barack Obama now has the leverage he needs to impose the framework of a Levantine peace deal, and it should include recognition of Hamas as a legitimate constituency within the Palestinian electorate. He can do this covertly, through neutral third parties, or as part of a very public multilateral round that involves countries like Egypt and Turkey.

Obama's Trip to Israel: Imitation of the Triumphal Entry

President Obama's upcoming trip to Israel is timed and choreographed so as to mimic Jesus' (Y'Shua's) triumphal entry into Jerusalem, and with it the predictive 'echo' event all Jews should recognize: Joshua's (Y'Shua's) crossing of the Jordan with the Israelites into the Promised Land, led by the Ark of the Covenant. Obama's trip is also timed so as to coincide precisely with the Vernal Equinox, a pagan holiday predicated on the principle of equality and eternal balance between light and darkness — a concept wholly at odds with scripture. The president's arrival in the land, and entry into Jerusalem marks the only year and the only day within a span of nearly two centuries when such a confluence of the Vernal Equinox and Triumphal Entry would be possible...it seems notable that the Vicar of (literally, the stand-in or substitute for) Christ, i.e., Pope Benedict XVI, should resign suddenly just six days after Obama announced his trip to Israel. The latest date rumored for the conclave to choose the next (and allegedly last) Pope to succeed him is... March 20th... the Vernal Equinox... the day Obama is set to arrive in Israel. To put it another way, the Pope's exit process is framed by Obama's trip. In such a context, Revelation 13 seems of increasing interest...Read this entire article here: <http://newine.wordpress.com/2013/02/26/obamas-trip-to-israel-an-imitation-of-the-triumphal-entry/> ...some VERY interesting material here!

Birthing Pangs for a Two State Solution: The Struggle Between an Esau Nation and a Jacob Nation

The story from the Jerusalem Post is a BOMBSHELL story. This story, "leaks to the press" that the parameters of a Two State Solution deal ALREADY EXISTS and has been basically agreed upon by Netanyahu and Abbas...How likely is it that Obama is coming to Israel to announce this "secret deal" that has already been made? Time will tell...but the leaking of THIS STORY to the press seems to indicate that such a "closet deal" has already been signed onto by both sides and that Obama may be coming to make this announcement with much hoopla and fanfare. And, remember, he is coming not just on any RANDOM day, but on March 20, Nisan 10. This is the day that the lamb is selected for the Passover. This is the same day that Yeshua, the lamb who takes away the sins of the world, entered Jerusalem. It sure looks like Obama is stepping into the role of a FALSE MESSIAH coming to Israel to serve up on a silver seder plate the announcement of a FALSE PEACE! Remember we are warned in 1 Thessalonians 5:3-5 "For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then SUDDEN destruction comes upon them, as LABOR PAINS upon a pregnant woman, and they shall not escape. But you, brothers, are NOT IN DARKNESS, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. For you are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness."...more

When Barack Obama was first elected in 2008, he was constantly pictured with an angelic glow surrounding him. Artists would frequently draw him with a halo surrounding his head. He was the Liberal Messiah for a lost and dying world. But something changed along the way. Halos have given way to horns. Obama, seen here giving a speech on ISIS and Islamic terrorism last night, was photographed in a startling way. He appeared to have twin horns protruding from the sides of his head in a kind of demonic apparition. Posted on 9/11/2014

"And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a BOW; and a CROWN was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer"
Revelation 6:2

You have to ask yourself why would O want this depiction to be used and posted – maybe sending a (not so) subliminal message to those who understand the message?

Barack Hussein Obama and the Code of Nebuchadnezzar

By Luis Vega

Does the LORD Himself use codes at all to communicate? Yes He did and does. One prime example when YHVH used a Bible code was when King Nebuchadnezzar was given dream of empires encoded with the dimensions corresponding to time, a bodily form, metals and beasts. A Rock smashed the statue that therefore filled the whole Earth. This was an example of how the aim of prophecy is to testify of Jesus Christ because ultimately the Rock that was cut from Heaven is Jesus and will come back to Earth. Obviously this scenario was “code” for the ultimate prophecy of the preeminence of Jesus Christ that is to return to claim Earth and its kingdoms according to Christian eschatology.

King Nebuchadnezzar nor his magicians and astrologers could interpret the code. The king as a mere man and ungodly could not interpret the dream or “crack the code.” He needed a code searcher. It was YHVH Himself that decoded the message for the Prophet Daniel. This godly Prophet than relayed o the king the meaning of YHVH’s code; it was a code of judgment. It took a godly man, Daniel that was required to decode the message that is the difference. This study strongly suggests that the missing link to this Bible code phenomenon is a godly man or woman needed to complete a Bible code circuit.

This proves that mere men, religious or not can at least handle and observe “bible codes” but the point of the study as it pertains to the validity and reliability of Bible codes is that it takes a “Daniel” or a “Joseph” to correctly divide the Word of Truth. The king like so many people are misguided by faith in other “gods” or seek revelation in other codes. One supposition of the “Nebuchadnezzar code” is that it relates to the archetype of what the AntiChrist identity will consist of. It is represented by the various metals, time and delineation of the body or statue dreamt by the King.

The alloys, beasts and body delineations ultimately correspond to the type of man or men that ruled and will rule the particular facet of the AntiChrist system from the time of Babylon until the return of Jesus. Babylon was the winged lion. The subsequent silver empire was a 2 prong rulership of Media and Persia that corresponded to the offset bear with 2 kings, Xerxes and Darius. The 3rd bronze empire was that of the Greeks with the midsection corresponding to Alexander the Great's 4 leading generals depicted as a winged leopard with 4 heads.

The long legs of iron corresponded to Rome. The Caesar was Constantine that represented one empire but with 2 capitals, one in the West at Rome and the other in the East, Constantinople. This last beast had a morphing of the 2 segments corresponding to the knee delineation of the long legs. Both empires in their own right fell. In the West the Roman Empire morphed into the Catholic Holy Roman Empire or the Vatican led by a Pope. In the East the byzantine Empire was conquered by the Muslims and a Caliphate emerged ruled by the Sultan, aka, the Mahdi.

Realize that the Muslim Caliphate was headquartered at Constantinople, which is now Istanbul Turkey. This could very well be the prelude to the mixing of the iron with clay in the Last Days that constitute the 10 tie confederation. This study suggests that the last Man, i.e., the "Little Horn" will be what the Christians denote as being the AntiChrist but what the Muslims will call the Mahdi. He will have the support of the West, that is the Pope that will be the False Prophet.

Thus this last "mixing" of the iron with clay gives a clue as to from where the Little Horn will come up from, the Muslim domain. This man will be given the power to rule the known world and will likewise be supported by what could constitute the "code" of mixing of the Catholic Vatican and the Muslim Caliphate in some sort of fashion. It will be a fragile association with 5 leaders in each domain.

The "code" defining the political and religious mixing of the last 4th Beast system will exemplify the "Christ." He will be the "AntiChrist" to some and "Christ" to others. This dichotomy could very well define the particular "mixing" of the Iron with Clay metaphorically on one prophetic level. What can be seen in Obama is the epitome of the "mixing" of Nebuchadnezzar stature of empires. Particularly in the Last Days and in the last rendition of "AntiChrist", the Son of Perdition will possess a "mixing" of both race and adherence to perhaps both religions or its mixing.

This Man of Sin will be bestowed the power, politically, economically and religiously to rule perhaps as the Messiah and the Mahdi will be one in the same because of his African lineage. This makes him a descendant of Nimrod, the King of Babylon. The point is that as it was Nimrod who started Babylon that perhaps one of his descendants is the one that will end it. This notion of prophetic “mixing” in the Last Days would also extend to a political mixing as observed in the following way even with Obama.

One add political peculiarity about Obama was that when he initially became President of the USA, he also, at the same time was “chosen” to v be President of the UN Security Council and actually held session. This “mixing” of political offices at the same time could have been another clue or “code” as to an additional designation of what the “Little Horn” would politically look like. Holding such an office was a direct violation of having an active U.S. President hold a foreign office or title; it was a “mixing” of both. Perhaps such a dual occupancy held by one man was a reflection of the mutual endorsement of the coming New World Order Obama admitted he has been working hard to achieve behind the scenes.

OBAMA’S DAUGHTERS NAMES

Obama’s two daughters were given names that are clues to the identity of their father.

Here are the names Malia and Natasha spelled backwards (note: these are shown in the correct sequence as Malia is the first born, and all the letters are sequenced correctly and not reordered! Also note the use of the major law of Satan, the “Law of Reversal” to understand the true meaning)

A I L A M A H S A T A N

The underlined letters spell I AM SATAN

The other letters left (and in order) spell ALAH

Note: The spelling on Alah is different than the traditional spelling Allah - however, I found this, which validates that spelling!! No mistake here! (just like Bow to Bough)
Origin of “Alah”:

According to Jewish sources, the word "alah" in the Hebrew language means "to ascend." Alah is found in the Hebrew Bible 688 times and translated a number of ways: "went up" [Gen 2:6]; "arose" [Gen 19:15]; and "ascend" [Isa 14:13]. There is only one text of scripture in which "alah" is used that comes near describing a god and that is Isaiah 14:13. In this text Lucifer, the great satan, claims he will "alah" [ascend] into heaven and replace God. This boast by the great satan is believed by many Christians to be the origin of the use of the name Allah for a god.

Historical Background On The Abomination of Desolation

The altar of Zeus was originally located in Pergamon, Turkey. It is the altar that Satan sits on and is worshipped at. In the early 1930s the Germans moved it to Berlin. Hitler's grand stage in Nuremberg, below, was modeled after the altar of Zeus.

In 168 BC Antiochus Epiphanes defiled the Jewish Temple by offering a pig sacrifice to Zeus.

In 70 AD Titus defiled the Jewish Temple by replacing it with a Temple to Jupiter.

Zeus and Jupiter are one in the same pagan god. Zeus was the highest Greek god and Jupiter was the highest Roman god. Both pagan gods find their origination in Baal.

Obama accepted his party's nomination to the presidency on an stage in Denver designed after the Altar of Zeus.

Revelation 17 – A Duality of the 7 Kings & the Beast?

Preamble:

The Revelation 17:10,11 passage of prophetic scripture is known in the commentaries as one of the mysteries of Revelation – it is my hypothesis herein, it may be a mystery because it could have an ambiguous or duality of interpretation.

Many of the great commentaries

<https://www.studyLight.org/commentary/revelation/17-10.html> seem to agree, more or less, that this passage was completely fulfilled in the past and pertains to the fall of once powerful empires (Kings, consuls, dictators, decemvirs, tribunes), and the Christian emperors to come. Then, some bring it forward to the Tribulation period and conclude with the antichrist and his one-world government. Some interpret it as the seven kings in the succession of Roman emperors, the beast meaning the Roman emperors, specifically Nero, and it all refers to Rome, either pagan, Christian, or papal. The eighth king being the Papacy, which takes the name of the beast, because it is the head of the beast, and the only surviving head of the beast, or Roman empire, and now has become Papal. The Papal does not fall like the other seven (Revelation 17:10), but is destroyed (as in Babylon to be destroyed in Revelation 18:10), and goes to its own perdition. Some commentary identifies the 8th King as the antichrist one world ruler (King).

In context and chronological order, the Tribulation seal, trumpet and bowl judgements have been concluded as we see in the execution of the seventh bowl judgement in Chapter 16:17-21. So Chapter 17 is not a continuation of an order of Revelation chronology, but a look back (or forward), as an angel explains the judgement of the harlot of Babylon (Revelation 17:7-18).

Many prophecy teachers have struggled as well with who is Mystery Babylon who is destroyed in one-hour (Revelation 18:10), and many believe it refers to the United States and particularly New York, for many good reasons. Again, possibly a duality in fulfillment can be interpreted here. However, it is my firm belief Mystery Babylon and Revelation 18:10 refer to Rome (see Bill Salus latest book and GAP thesis “Apocalypse Road” for his proofs <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BlevEujX4RA>).

Is there a duality in meaning, interpretation, and in judgements in the Bible? Scripture is replete with metaphor and use of parallel meaning and dual interpretation. Proverbs 25:2 tells us “It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.” One interpretation of this passage states “God conceals deep truths, making them mysteries, and that is good and glorious. The good and glorious role of the most noble of men, on the other hand, is to search out those mysteries.”

Jonathan Cahn in his book “The Harbinger” sees the Isaiah 9:10 judgement as a prophetic warning to the United States. Isaiah 9:10 was clearly speaking to Israel, however, how many times does history seem to be repeating itself in America today? The words of Isaiah 9:10 were first uttered by leaders in Israel and in response to a limited strike by Assyria on the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali – an attack the prophet makes clear is actually part of a limited judgment by God against apostasy. It wasn’t meant to destroy the nation, but to awaken it [as Obama was given to America as both a judgement and to awaken it!]. However, says Cahn, Israel didn't take the cue. Instead, the response from the people in Isaiah 9:10 is one of defiance.

Many times things in the Bible are stated as a warning and provide an example of the consequences or the probable (or actual) outcomes. The message being, if future generations do not heed the example or warning the same consequences or outcomes will be manifest on them as well. As an example, Genesis 12:3 "I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you" is universal and for all generations – the outcomes will be the same, a blessing or a cursing, regardless of which dispensation or generation or peoples involved.

As in Israel's defiance of God (Isaiah 9:10), so have the the Presidents (Kings) of the U.S. defied God. Genesis 15:18 says "On the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates." Joel 3:2 God states the ultimate consequence of those trying to divide the land God (eternally) gave Israel "I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. Then I will enter into judgment with them there on behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; and they have divided up My land." ...that is the final judgement...it begins with Genesis 12:3.

Starting with King Carter through King Trump, the record is one of defiance to recognize the land covenant God made with Israel:

1. Jimmy Carter – Throughout his term he kept on declaring Israeli settlements to be illegal and an obstacle to peace. In 1980 the US voted for resolution 465, which referred to Jerusalem as part of the Occupied Territories and stated that Israel's claims to the sovereignty of the city were void. The Carter era was also the beginning of "Land For Peace," which is an interpretation of UN Security Council Resolution 242 which has formed the basis of subsequent Arab-Israeli peace making.
2. Ronald Regan - less than a month after he took office, he expressed his opinion that the expansion of Israeli settlements was not a constructive move, and maybe unnecessarily provocative.
3. George H. W. Bush – Senior Bush's Secretary of State, James Baker, addressed AIPAC in 1989, stating that Israeli settlement expansion had to end. Bush's Administration also referred to East Jerusalem as Occupied Territory and declared that the settlement issue was one of the main obstacles for peace. In 1993 at the end of the Bush term and beginning of the Clinton term, the Oslo Accords began. "The greatest diplomatic disaster of modern times has to be the so called 'Oslo Peace Accord.' It makes Neville Chamberlain's Munich agreement pale into insignificance by comparison. From its inception in 1993, it has been built on unrealistic wishes, myths and outright falsehoods. Even worse,

- the entire agreement was based on many false assumptions.” ~ Hal Linsey
4. Bill Clinton – In 1995 Jerusalem was recognized by the Public Law 104-45 as the ‘undivided’, ‘united’ and ‘reunited’ capital of Israel, and a new U.S. embassy was ordained to be open no later than May 1999. Clinton postponed the move of the embassy during his term.
 5. George W. Bush – Bush Jr. encouraged a "roadmap to peace" (Oslo II) and supported the withdrawal from Gaza. In 2008 he held a joint news conference with Palestinian president Mahmoud Abbas called on Israel to end its 41-year occupation of Palestinian land and predicted a peace treaty would be signed by the time he leaves office.
 6. Barack Obama – Cited by even liberal press accounts as the most hostile and anti-Israel president of all time. He was the architect of the Iran Deal, which the Israeli Defense Ministry stated “The Iran deal is as harmful for Israel as the Munich Agreement with Hitler. Weeks prior to leaving office, in a dramatic departure from the longstanding U.S. policy of vetoing anti-Israel resolutions, the Obama administration abstained from voting on a United Nations Security Council resolution calling for a halt to Israeli construction in the West Bank and eastern Jerusalem, thereby allowing the measure to pass, throwing Israel under the preverbal bus.
 7. Donald Trump – Likely the most Pro-Israel President ever, however, as others before him, seeks to be the one to establish a peace agreement between Israel and its Arab neighbors – see further below his statements from the recent Joint Press Conference with Israeli Prime Ministry Benjamin Netanyahu, which could lead to the fulfillment of some Major Bible prophecy!

It is then in this context of a possible ambiguous or duality of the message of Revelation 17:10,11, that this study suggests that Revelation 17:10,11 is ALSO possibly pointing to the last seven Presidents of the U.S. and their defiance of the God of Israel (trying to divide Israel), and the potential connection to the coming Antichrist, who tag teams with the Mystery Babylon and The Mother of Harlots. If the ambiguous/duality is valid, the possibility then exists that the traditional commentary accounts, and the account below, converge with the 8th King being the same in both cases.

As this study also speaks to the soon to come rapture and tribulation period, it is not the intent to try to set specific dates for any event(s) but point to the fact that we are in the very last days and the coming of Christ for His bride continues to be eminent!

Revelation 17 – A Duality of the 7 Kings & the Beast?

Revelation 17:10,11

“There are also seven kings [American Presidents, essentially “Kings of the World”]. Five have fallen [completed their term], one is [the 6th - Obama], and the other has not yet come [7th - Trump – remember all the 7’s associated with Trump – see below]. And when he comes, he [Trump] must continue a short time [something happens and his time is cut short]. The beast that was [Obama], and is not [Obama ended his term], is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition (or a state of eternal punishment and damnation).”

If this verse is read and understood during the Obama era, it makes perfect sense.

1. Jimmy Carter (1977-1981). Why start the “7-Kings” count with Carter? After the fulfillment of Ezekiel 37 (the Jews returning to their land, becoming a State in 1948), the 1977-8 Camp David Accords was the starting point of Israel’s False Peace Agreements.

The Camp David Accords were signed by Egyptian President Anwar El Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin on 17 September 1978, following twelve days of secret negotiations at Camp David¹ The two framework agreements were signed at the White House, and were witnessed by United States President Jimmy Carter. The second of these frameworks (A Framework for the Conclusion of a Peace Treaty between Egypt and Israel) led directly to the 1979 Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty. Due to the agreement, Sadat and Begin received the shared 1978 Nobel Peace Prize.

Carter’s advisers insisted on the establishment of an Egyptian-Israeli agreement which would lead to an eventual solution to the Palestine issue. The Camp David Accords comprise two separate agreements: “A Framework for Peace in the Middle East” and “A Framework for the Conclusion of a Peace Treaty between Egypt and Israel”, the second leading towards the Israel-Egypt Peace Treaty signed in March 1979. The agreements and the peace treaty were both accompanied by “side-letters” of understanding between Egypt and the U.S. and Israel and the U.S. The preamble of the “Framework for Peace in the Middle East” starts with the basis of a peaceful settlement of the Arab–Israeli conflict. Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Camp_David_Accords

It was the 1st Peace Agreement between Israel and any of its Arab neighbors since the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948.

2. Ronald Regan
3. George H. W. Bush
4. Bill Clinton
5. George W. Bush
6. Barack Obama

7. Donald Trump – on his inauguration day 2017, was 70 years 7 months and 7 days old (777) and it was also Hebrew year 5777!!
8. Barack Obama - resurfaces to lead a one-world government and as world ruler (possible King of the North Daniel 11:36-45) and “confirms the covenant” Daniel 9:27 for a False Peace with all Israel’s Arab neighbors, until he breaks that covenant and peace himself at the mid-point of Jacobs Trouble. These then are the bookends of False Peace starting with King Carter and ending with (False King of the World Obama)...this before Jesus Christ 2nd coming as “The everlasting Father, Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9:6) “of the increase of his government [his authority] and peace there shall be no end.” v7. “the Lord of peace Himself [Jesus Christ] give you peace always [eternal]” 2 Thessalonians 3:16. Jesus is the only one that can bring about peace, not U.S. Presidents, the UN or other world powers.

Note: Isaiah 28:14,15 confirms that Daniel 9:27 is a False Peace Agreement. “Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem. You boast, ‘We have entered into a covenant with death, with the grave we have made an agreement. When an overwhelming scourge sweeps by, it cannot touch us, for we have made a lie our refuge and falsehood our hiding place.’”

Is the American President the King of the world? (also known as The Leader of the Free World)

The US President has powers to decide key political/ social issues that impact the world. In that sense position is equal to Kings of the past era. However, today he is more accountable to his own public due to election process. Also, somewhat accountable to world at large as there are World-wide governing bodies that do have rights to raise concern.

The 7th King (Trump) recently made an astonishing statement during the recent Joint Press Conference with Israeli Prime Ministry Benjamin Netanyahu.

BENJAMIN NETANYAHU: The two perquisites of peace, recognition of the Jewish state and Israel’s security needs, west of the Jordan, they remain pertinent. We have to look for new ways, new ideas, on how to re-instate and how to move peace forward. And I believe that the great opportunity for peace comes from a regional approach from involving our new found Arab partners in the pursuant of a broader peace and peace will the Palestinians. And I greatly look forward to discussing this in detail with you Mr. President, because, I think that if we work together, we have a shot.

DONALD TRUMP: And we have been discussing that and it is something that is very different, hasn't been discussed before. And it's actually a much bigger deal -- much more important deal in a sense. It would take in many, many countries and would cover a very large territory. So, I didn't know you were going to be mentioning that, but that's now (spa) that you did. I think it's a terrific thing and I think we have some pretty good cooperation from people that in the past, would never ever have even thought about doing this. So we'll see how that works out.

Earlier he stated - Our administration is committed to working with Israel and our common allies in the region towards greater security and stability. That includes working toward a peace agreement between Israel and the Palestinians. The United States will encourage a peace and really a great peace deal. We'll be working on it very, very diligently. Very important to me also, something we want to do.

Could it be the 7th King (Trump) drafts a Peace Covenant (with a broad coalition of Arab nations) and it does not get Consummated before his “short time” has abruptly ended? The 8th King then “Confirms that Covenant” Daniel 9:27.

Note: This is a good point to insert that it is becoming very clear that part of King 777's \(God ordained\) role is to expose the truth in these last days of Church history – Luke 8:17 “For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light.” If you are reading your news, from WikiLeaks document dumps to exposing all the corruption in Washington and world-wide pedophile rings, and those working for a one world government/financial system...he is uncovering and exposing it all!! Pray for his protection and that of his family as well as Vice President Pence and family, his cabinet and their families and all those who support him for truth and draining of the swamp!

Report: Valerie Jarrett Moves in With Obama to Set Up Anti-Trump 'Nerve Center'
<http://insider.foxnews.com/2017/03/02/valerie-jarrett-moves-obama-plot-against-trump-dc-mansion>

“President Barack Obama's former top White House adviser Valerie Jarrett is moving in with him and will help with an "insurgency" against President Donald Trump... Obama's goal, according to a close family friend, is to oust Trump from the presidency either by forcing his resignation or through his impeachment.”

This could explain the “short time” of the 7th King! So could a soon Rapture event and the Sudden Destruction that follows be the cause for a shortened term? “For when they say, ‘Peace and safety’ then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape.” 1 Thessalonians 5:3. Also see 5777: Year of The Rapture? [that is a question mark not a statement]

<https://biblicalsignsintheheadlines.com/2016/09/09/5777-are-you-rapture-ready/>

...could this be the reason King 777 time is cut short?

“For the mystery of lawlessness [6th & 8th King] is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed [for the world to then know - Daniel 9:27], whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception...” 2 Thessalonians 2:7-10

It seems somehow appropriate that the 6th King on September 11, 2011, President Barack Obama [a lawless and lying one], read from Psalm 46 as part of the ceremony at the World Trade Center site to mark the 10th anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks. See <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VxFi4mv0rRQ>...stating:

Be Still and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations.
I will be exalted in the Earth.

It is also more than interesting that September 11th also happens to be the date Jesus was likely born (Was Jesus born Sept. 11, 3 B.C.? <http://www.wnd.com/2013/08/was-jesus-born-sept-11-3-b-c/>). So by choosing this date to recite the Psalm 46 passage is like foretelling or sending the message as a counterfeit Christ, of his birth as antichrist (Satanic God incarnate) and his returning to be King, and be exalted among the nations and the Earth!

“The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders” 2 Thessalonians 2:9

The period of the 1st King Carter’s election to the fall of 2017 is 40 - years. The number forty can also represent a generation of man. Because of their sins after leaving Egypt, God swore that the generation of Israelites who left Egyptian bondage would not enter their inheritance in Canaan (Deuteronomy 1). The children of Israel were punished by wandering the wilderness for 40 years before a new generation was allowed to possess the promised land. Jesus appeared to his disciples and others for 40 days after his resurrection from the dead, after the 40-days he was taken up into Heaven. The prophet Jonah powerfully warned ancient Nineveh, for forty days, that its destruction would come because of its many sins. Forty has long been universally recognized as an important number, both on account of the frequency of its occurrence, and the uniformity of its association with a period of probation, trial, and chastisement – then comes Judgement (Jacobs Trouble). Thus, a 40-year count from King Carter to the re-crowning of King Obama (beginning the Judgement) also makes sense and the other inferences of 40 as well.

A recent study by Lu Vega also has a most interesting fit with all of the above and is a very interesting study in itself and its conclusion – see THE DUALITY OF PROPHECY A Parallel Timeline of an Advent and Birthing <http://nebula.wsimg.com/a7327b4eb585fde5259562a286999d44?AccessKeyId=D40106E1331C24ABD7C3&disposition=0&alloworigin=1> This study in part is an analysis of the much talked about Revelation 12 sign coming this September 2017 (5777-8). <http://www.fivedoves.com/letters/jan2017/luisv129.htm> as a confirming study on the end of the Gentile Age in relation to the 153rd fish.

Is it’s possible this 40-year count is signaling the time of the Gentiles is concluding and our Catching Away is at hand...and, the 8th King is then going to be revealed!

If all these things are found to be true, when understood in context, 2 Thessalonians 2, confirms that the Rapture of the church will take place BEFORE the revealing of the Antichrist. See (<http://www.prophecydepotministries.net/2012/will-the-church-witness-the-antichrist/>) ...how close then are we to the Harpazo?
